To

M. N. Krishna Rao Esq. B.A.,
Financial Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore Bangalore.

Dear Sir,

For the last six months I have been vainly expecting the receipt of the further communication promised in your kind D.O. No H-2740 dated the 5th Oct 20.

2. May I take this opportunity to invite your attention to the fact that all the suggestions made in a series of 17 letters between the 6th February and 12th June 1919 as well as others were, as desired in para 2 of your letter No H-6608-GF-77-18-26 dated the 11th June 1919, submitted in a consolidated form so far back as shown below:-

(i) Draft Rules for the guidance of Depositors on the 30th July 1919 or 20 months ago

(ii) " Treasury officials } 8th Septr 1919 write a List of Forms— } or 19 months ago

(iii) Specimens of 36 revised Forms— 15th October 1919 or 18 months ago

It would be interesting to know whether any, and if so what progress has been made during the interval of 20 months with regard to the examination of the proposals: for, this reminds me of the suggestion made in para 2 of my letter of the 15th October 1919 (vide copy subjoined for ready reference) which was ignored. Had it been accepted and acted upon, the proposed revision of the SB Rules and Forms would, I feel quite certain, have become an accomplished fact long before this.

3. Such there is yet no sign of the consideration of the proposals coming to ahead from the departmental routine in which the papers would appear to have been apparently submerged. Such a thing is only calculated to fill me with despair as to seeing the fruition of my labours, though I have personally no axe to grind. I trust, however, that Government will not, in the interests of the State and its subjects, allow the existing state of affairs to continue any longer, especially after the recent discovery of the serious defalcations in the Electrical Department.

4. In this connection, I may add that I cannot understand why even my application for the refund of annas four paid by me on the "obsolete" copy of the S.B. Rules sold at the Government Book Depot in the Fort and referred to against item (c) under para 2 of my letter dated the 31st May 1919 is also kept pending over 22 months. That letter was, after the receipt of my reminder dated the 6th June 1919, acknowledged in your letter No. H-6750 dated the 20th idem, stating that "the matter referred to therein would receive early attention". But in the absence of any order on the point, I can only conclude that, instead of being dealt with separately on its own merits, the application for refund has been evidently mixed up with the genal question of the revision of S.B. Rules and Forms with the result that I am still obliged to await your sanction for payment of this small amount due to me. Now the matter is again brought to your notice, I hope that it will be settled without further unnecessary delay. Thanking you in anticipation and apologizing for the trouble given by me

Yours Sincerely
K.B. Khanna

Copy of para 2 of my letter D/the 15th '19

2. The revision of the Rules and forms extends to the whole system in order to ensure its working on a more secure basis than at present. This, I venture to submit, should be done in the interests of Government and the public alike, especially when no limit has been placed on deposits in and withdrawals from the Savings Bank. But if the proposals are dealt in the usual course of routine under which no less than 18 months were occupied in the disposal of 6 or 7 points originally submitted in July and August 1917, I fear that the consideration of all the 46 Rules for the guidance of Depositors and 72 Rules for the guidance of Treasury officials in addition to the 36 Forms would at the same rate of progress take an unconscionable

My present submission is, therefore, that the Rules and Trotter Brotherhood Deed should be referred to a small select committee of 2 or 3 members who are thoroughly conversant with the details of Barnes's bank work the members of such a committee ought to be able to examine the Trotter and Brotherhood arrangements and report the result of their discussions with a view to the desirability or otherwise of the proposed changes within a short period of one or two months. If they should regularly and systematically discharge this special duty, with sufficient care and promptitude I for my part, should be glad to assist the committee if necessary, with any further information that I could furnish upon the matter

Dear Sir,

It is strange that I have not even had the usual acknowledgement up to date for my letter of the 11th instant. Fearing that it might have perhaps gone astray, I now subjoin a copy and send this under a registered cover with a view to ensure its safe delivery.

Rao Bahadur K. S. Rangachari, retired Postmaster, Bangalore, addressed at first a number of communications suggesting modifications in Government Savings Bank Rules, and followed them up subsequently by a complete draft of the rules incorporating in them all his suggestions, with a memorandum explaining the alterations proposed by him. There has been delay in dealing with his suggestions, as the matter was not particularly urgent.

The suggestions of Mr. Rangachari had been referred for the opinion of the Comptroller and his recommednations are on record.

Mr. Rangachari proposes to confine the Savings Bank Rules proper, to those intended for the guidance of the depositors and suggests that the rules for regulating the work of Treasury Officers had better be incorporated in the Treasury Manual. This is an acceptable suggestion. The Treasury Manual has now been superseded by the Mysore Account Code and Volume II of the Code deals with treasury procedure in which the Savings Bank rules for the guidance of treasuries should appropriately be incorporated. The part of the rules dealing with treasury procedure may therefore be put in the Mysore - Accound Code and as the rules relating to such procedure are generally prescribed by the Comptroller, the alterations that may be found necessary in the rules may be required to be made by the Comptroller before incor-incoporating them in the Code.

Government need deal with only the the Savings Bank rules intended for the -- guidance of depositors which are now included in Section 1 of the present rules.

Mr. Rangachari has regrranged the rules for the guidance of depositors. This is, I consider, unnecessary. The old arrangement has become familiar both to the public and to the staffs of the Treasuries and the Comptroller's Office, and had better be left undisturbed. Such of the suggestions of Mr Rangachari as are acceptable may be incorporated in the respective rules in the order in which they now stand.

Section 1.

Mr. Rangachari states that it is well to mention which are all the Government -- Savings Bank Offices. A sentence as under may be inserted under paragraph 2 of the Section.

The State Huzur Treasury
All District Treasuries, and
All Taluk treasuries,

except those at the headquarters of the Districts are Savings Bank Offices. The form of this rule can be simplified by omitting some unnecessary words and it may be redrafted as under:

"The following rules in respect of Government Savings Banks are sanctioned in supersession of all existing rules, etc....

Mr. Rangacha[illegible]es to define "Minor" as: "a person who is not deemed to have attained majority". The definition in in our present rules is this: in accordance with the law (Savings Bank Act) in force. It can ~~"Minor means a person who has not com-~~ ~~to be altered without~~ No change is necessary

~~ted~~ the age of 18 years."

This definition is not ~~accurate~~ complete as it does not cover all cases. The definition in ~~the~~ Post Office Savings Bank rules is as fol-~~lows:~~

"Minor means a person who is ~~not~~ deemed to have attained his majority under the Indian Majority Act, 1875".

This Act is in force in Mysore as well and the definition as given in the Post Offi-ce Savings Bank rules may be adopted by us.

There is no definition of "Comptroller in the rules and Mr. Rangachari therefore pro-pose to definie "Comptroller". ~~It~~ This is unneces-sary. The Comptroller who is concerned with the Mysore Government Savings Bank is obvious-ly the Mysore Government Comptroller.

Rule 7.--Mr. Rangachari proposes a pro-vision for the opening of accounts on behalf of lunatics by their managers or guardians. This proposal may be accepted. There is a -- corresponding provision in the Post Office Savings Bank rules.

He also proposes the elaboration of accounts that may be opened by Corporations or on behalf of institutions of different kinds This elaboration is not necessary. Our pre-sent rule is a general one and ~~xxxxxxxx~~ it has therefore the advantage of not requiring modi-fication, which would become necessary when too many details are given.

Rule 8.--As in the case of ~~xx~~ rule 7 provision will be made for accounts on behalf of lunatics.

Mr. Rangachari proposes a new section/rule for enumerating public accounts. The proposal is very elaborate and goes into too many details. Our present rule 7 is comprehensive enough.

Rules 15 and 17.--Mr. Rangachari proposes the deletion of these, as he has suggested in a new rule of the different kinds of Corporations and the accounts that may be opened by them. As his suggestion in regard to the enumeration of public accounts is not proposed to be accepted, these rules may remain undisturbed

Mr. Rangachari proposes a new rule providing for the opening of conjoint accounts for regimental and police funds. We have separate rules for our military funds and we have no police funds for investment in Savings Banks. The suggested rule is therefore unnecessary.

Rule 18 Mr. Rangachari's suggestion amounts only to a recasting of the matter which is already contained in the rule, which may -- therefore be left undisturbed. That Security deposit accounts form an exception to the rule which prohibits the transfer of accounts until they have been in existence for three months, should however be referred to in this section and his suggestion in this respect may be accepted.

Rule 21.--Provision for withdrawal of amounts deposited on behalf of lunatics· proposed by Mr. Rangachari may be included.

Rule 24.--Mr. Rangachari proposes to substitute for this a simpler rule ~~in~~ as in the Post Office Savings Bank rules. Ours is a full provision and it is not necessary to alter ~~x~~ it.

The depositor cannot note in his -- pass book that his deposit is a security -- amount and the words 'in the pass book' in ~~the~~ last sentence of sub-para 1 may be cut out. Para 2 is out of place in the rules for guidance of depositors as it is really an instruction to ~~the~~ Treasury ~~officer~~. It may therefore be omitted.

ference to ~~major~~ ledger in para 3 is also out of place and this para may be revised as under so that it may really be an instruction to the depositor.

"If a Mohammadan depositor, on opening his account makes the express request that interest be not added to his deposit, he should add a note to that effect on the index ~~index~~ card.".

Rule 25.--Mr. Rangachari proposes a foot note, to transfer the provision of the present substantive rule 27. This change is not necessary.

Rule 28.--Mr. Rangachari proposes that in lieu of this rule, corresponding the ~~in~~ Postal Savings Bank rule had better be -- substituted. This is not necessary. There is a provision in the Postal Savings Bank rules which precludes a postal official from being the agent of any woman except of his own wife in respect of an account held in the Post Office in which he is employed. This a wholesome prohibition and we may adopt it as proposed by Mr. Rangachari.

Rules 29 & 30.--These rules giv instructions as to how names should be written. These instructions are intended as much to depositors as to treasuries. Mr. Rangachari however considers that they are intended only for Treasuries and accordingly proposes to delete these two rules. They need not be disturbed.

Rule 32.--Mr. Rangachari proposes to substitute the corresponding Postal Savings Bank rule, which levies fees in cases in which our local rules does not. Our rule need not be altered.

Rule 33.--The change in note 2, in regard to attainment of majority may be made. Note 3 is unnecessary as the form of the Savings Bank Deposit challan itself makes the point clear.

Rule 34.--Mr. Rangachari's proposal is an unnecessary elaboration of the rule which may stand as it is.

Rule 48n--Reference to amjority may be made general without specifying the age of 18 years.

Rule 49.--Mr. Rangachri considers this instruction to the Treasury and proposes therefore to delete it. The error in ~~the~~ the balance due to ~~the~~ a depositor should b known to the latter. The rule may therefor stand.

Rule 51.--Mr. Rangachari's suggestion for the ~~xxxxx~~ alteration of this rule is i~~t~~ ~~amplifying~~ amplification so as to include th provisions of the ~~xxxx~~ Act. As the Act itself i printed along with the rule it is unnecessary amplify it. The rule may stand.

Rule 52.--Mr. Rangachari proposes th deletion of this rule as it is intended only for the instruction of the Treasury Officers He is right and the rule may therefore b e omitted here and included in the section ~~xxxxxxx~~ dealing with Treasury Procedure.

Rule 53.--Mr. Rangachari has amplifie this rule so as to be applicable to the case of male ~~xxxxxxxx~~ depositors who change their names. T revised rule may be adopted with the additio of "on a fresh index card to be sent to the Comptrollers's Office" at the end of the rul proposed by ~~him~~.

Rule 54.--Mr. Rangachari proposes th deletion of this rule as it is intended only for the instruction of the Treasury Officers He is right and the rule may therefore b e omitted here and included in the section ~~xxxxxxx~~ dealing with Treasury Procedure.

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of Government Proceedings No. H 3-4 / GF. 19-17-7 of the 18th current, I beg to offer, as in duty bound, my thanks to Government for their kind appreciation of my humble efforts to to make the Savings Bank Rules clearer and more complete. I do not, however, feel that I can congratulate myself on the achievement of my labours in this respect. For, while the number of amendments sanctioned under the previous orders of Government was 9, the Government have now accepted 14 including the incorporation of Section II of the present Savings Bank Rules in Volume II of the Mysore Account Code as a separate Chapter. The total number of additions and alterations thus carried out at my instance within the last 4 years being only 23, it is evident that the elaborate and exhaustive proposals submitted by me failed to receive the full consideration I rightly or wrongly expected from the instructions conveyed to me in your letter No. H. 6608 / GF. 77-18-26 dated the 11th June 1919, desiring me "to go through all the Savings Bank Rules and forward all suggestions in a consolidated form"

2 Evidently the Government have not since found it necessary or desirable to introduce any radical changes on the lines of the drafts proposed by me. Had I known this beforehand, I could and would have saved the considerable trouble involved in the matter to both of us.

3. In the face of the Government's attitude, which is bound to materially influence the action yet to be taken by the Comptroller, I can scarcely hope for anything better at his hands. In fact, the Government have, in forwarding the drafts to him, given him to what may be regarded as a carte-blanche to come and adopt such of them as are suitable. This means that he need not take up the matter at all, if he is not inclined to do so. On the other hand, even the best of his intentions might possibly be rendered ineffectual simply for want of time to have the drafts thoroughly examined in detail by his office, which, as you must know from your own experience, is not the least over-worked of all the departments. What is more, there would be no means of checking this masterly inactivity in the matter, since the order neither gives any time limit within which the work may reasonably be expected to be finished nor requires the Comptroller to report, at least, for the information of Government the nature of the action taken by him in respect of the proposals referred to him. Therefore, I cannot but regard it as a folly to let the drafts meet with such regrettable fate after all the anxious thought & time given by me to their preparation.

Banstor No. H 3187 / GF. 77-18-24 dated the 6th January 1919.
H 5890 / GF. 77-18-24 dated the 14th May 1919.

4. Be this as it may, I should like to invite your attention to the accompanying correspondence relating to the sale of "obsolete" copy of Savings Bank Rules in the Government Book Depot and the refund of four annas only to which I preferred my claim on principle. I should also be glad to know if orders have been passed to the disposal of the obsolete copies of the Rules in question which should of course be withdrawn from sale and when I may hope to get the refund. Thanking you in anticipation of an early reply

(a) the supply of the revised copies of the Rules to all the existing depositors free of charge, by

From Rao Bahadur R. S. Rangachary
Esq. Retired Sessions Judge, M.A., F.R.E.S., Secretary to the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

On the Post Office Savings Bank every depositor is furnished with a copy of the "Rules for the guidance of depositors in a pamphlet form (i) when an account is newly opened and (ii) whenever a revised edition is subsequently issued. But I doubt if such is really the case in the Mysore Government Savings Bank. For I recently noticed that "Savings Bank Rules for the guidance of depositors with Annexures" priced at four annas, was included in the "List of official Publications available for sale at the Government Book Depot, Bangalore Fort by which the list was issued in July 1918. I bought a copy of the Rules yesterday through Mr. M. R. Krishnamurthy Rao, Sub Postmaster, Bangalore Fort, with a view to neatly embody in it ~~the~~ ~~suggestions~~ all the corrections suggested by me. But to my surprise, I now find that it contains only the old Rules printed at the Government Press, Bangalore, in July 1916. I cannot understand how this "obsolete" edition has been allowed to be sold to the public till now, while the Rules were actually revised and published in the Mysore Gazette, Part I, dated the 19th July 1917.

2 I beg therefore that you will kindly take steps for the issue of necessary orders to all the officers concerned

(a) to supply the existing depositors with a copy of Section I of the current Savings Bank Rules of July 1917 edition, if there is no objection to ~~Adopt~~ the P.O.S.B. system;

(b) to have the "obsolete" copies of the Rules (1916 edition) withdrawn at once from sale at the Central Book Depot and disposed of as waste paper, and

(c) to refund to me early the sum of annas four, being the cost of one obsolete copy of the Rules sold to me, as I will thankfully return that book to the Officer refunding the amount.

In this connection, I may add that I cannot understand why even my application for the refund of annas four, paid by me on the "obsolete" copy of the SB Rules sold at the Government Book Depot and referred to against item (c) under para 2 of my letter dated the 31st May 1919 is also kept pending over 22 months. That letter was, after the receipt of my reminder dated the 6th June 1919, acknowledged in your letter No. Ft 6750 dated the 20th idem, stating that "the matter referred to therein would receive early attention". But in the absence of any order on the point, I can only conclude that, instead of being dealt with separately on its own merits, the application has been evidently mixed up with the general question of the revision of SB Rules and Forms with the result that I am still obliged to await your sanction for payment of this small amount due to me. Now the matter is again brought to your notice, I hope that it will be settled without further unnecessary delay. Thanking you in anticipation and apologizing for the trouble given by me.
